"Perhaps not quite, but that was twenty years ago, remember. Times change, I guess." called herself Sinsemilla as long as I've known her." Leilani settled into a hideous orange-and-blue chair. Fury fired her rant, which grew hotter by the word: "Witch with a broomstick up your ass, witch bitch,," "I don't think it could work," Pernak said, shaking his head after Lechat had finished. "None of the things everybody else is yelling about up here can work either. They haven't gotten it into their heads yet that nothing they've had any experience with applies to Chiron. This is a whole new phenomenon with its own new rules." "Old Sinsemilla," said Leilani..EARLY THAT EVENING, Sirocco presented himself at the Transportation Controller's office in the Canaveral shuttle base to advise that D Company had arrived for embarkation as ordered. Capacity had been scheduled since morning, and the Controller did no more than raise his eyebrows and check the computer to verify the change; it didn't make any difference to him which company the Army decided to move up to the ship as long as their number was no more than he had been expecting. An hour later the company marched off the shuttle in smart order, and after clearing the docking-bay area in Vandenberg, dispersed inconspicuously to their various destinations around the Mayflower 11. Speed was now critical since only so much time could elapse before somebody realized a replacement unit from the surface hadn't shown up where it was supposed to..eventually be her salvation. Or damnation..let me tell you, it loses its charm pretty quick."..cries of pigs catching sight of the abattoir master's gleaming blade, although these also are surely human.."But they seem to have an intuition to make human value judgments," Colman objected. "They know too much about how people think."..He thought it as he and Sirocco sat entombed in their heavy-duty protective suits behind a window in the guardroom next to the facility's armored door, staring out along the corridors that nobody had come along in twenty years unless they'd had to. Behind them PFC Driscoll was wedged into a chair, watching a movie on one of the companel screens with the audio switched through- to his suit radio. Driscoll should have been patrolling outside, but that ritual was dispensed with whenever Sirocco was in charge of the Bomb Factory guard detail. A year or so previously, somebody in D Company had taken advantage of the fact that everyone looked the same in heavy-duty suits by feeding a video recording of some dutiful, long forgotten sentry into the closed-circuit TV system that senior officers .were in the habit of spying through from time to time, and nobody from the unit had done any patrolling since. The cameras were used instead to afford early warning of. unannounced spot checks..A siren arises in the distance. This could be a fire truck, an ambulance, a police vehicle, or a clown car.."LCP's standing by and ready to fire," another voice reported..Colman grinned and stroked her hair. "You're right. So what do you want to hear about?" "Seriously?" Leilani's eyes widened. Her hand paused with a forkful of pasta halfway between plate and..four rioters were left behind with sore heads or other minor injuries. While the Company medic began cleaning up the injured and Sirocco stood talking with the SD commander a short distance away, Colman watched Kalens's limousine drive away in the opposite direction and disappear. That was how it had always been, he could see now. For thousands of years men had bled and died so that others might be chauffeured to their mansions. They had sacrificed themselves because they had never been able to penetrate the carefully woven curtain that obscured the truth-the curtain that they had been conditioned not to be able to see through or to think about. But the Chironians had never had the conditioning..are."..the country. No permanent neighbors. No friends, just people we meet on the road, like at a..bad news from which they should have been spared..however, if she hadn't ascended in the sparkling rapture of a starship's levitation beam, Preston would." He leans over the sink, closer to the mirror, and studies his bared teeth with.."What are you suggesting?" Wellesley was gripping the arms of his chair as if about to rise to his feet. "You sure? The sky goes away in the dark, and everything gets so big. I don't want her scared."..At that moment the communications supervisor called out, "We have an incoming transmission from the Battle Module." At once the whole of the Communications Center fell silent, and the figures of Stern and Stormbel, flanked by officers of their high command, appeared on one of the large mural displays high above the floor. Stern was looking cool and composed, but there was a mocking, triumphant gleam in his eyes; Stormbel was standing with his fret astride and his arms folded across his chest, his head upright, and his face devoid of expression, while the other officers stared ahead woodenly. After a few seconds, Wellesley, Lechat, and Borftein moved to the center of the floor and stood looking up at the screen..that he would have encountered from the finny residents of a real aquarium..cupholders, and when the boy filled one of these with water, his companion lapped it up efficiently..the key to escape, to freedom, and to being Curtis Hammond. She closed the door and locked her..Ignoring her, the girl plucked a roll of plastic wrap from a counter and began to cover the serving bowls,.."Then invoke the security provisions," Borftein said, shifting in his chair from weariness with the whole business. "It's a security matter, isn't it? The Chironians have left it to us by default, and it's their security at stake as well as ours. The Pagoda's only two years away.
